MARKET

Hello Friends!

Welcome and thank you for being a part of our first STITCHES SoCal!

We have been hosting STITCHES Events for 27 years, and many things have changed. But the mandate remains the same—to provide education and inspiration to you—the creative consumer.

Until recently, our show focused on knitting—still near and dear to our hearts. But we're expanding the scope of our classes and market. We have found that many of your interests are not defined by one craft or even by one medium. So, to best serve your creative appetites, our shows now include stimulating classes and shopping for ALL—knitters, crocheters, weavers, spinners AND sewists, quilters, and others interested in all things yarn, fiber, AND fabric.

I thank our generous sponsors for their support in hosting this event and our vendors for bringing beautiful wares to the show—and for all the prizes they both contribute. I thank the LA Yarn Crawl Association for their support and partnership in promoting this show. I thank our teachers for sharing their talent and energy—and the backstage crew for help with the Fashion Show. I thank Barry Klein and Rick Mondragon for hosting our evening events. And I thank the City of Pasadena, the Pasadena Convention Center staff, and our host hotels' staffs for making us feel welcome.

Finally, I thank you. Without students and market-goers, none of this would be possible. This show is for and about you. Thanks for being here.

All of us at STITCHES Events hope you have an amazing weekend—a weekend that delights, inspires, and even challenges you. And we invite you to join us for another STITCHES Event in the near future.

All my best.

Benjamin Levisay
CEO

Statement of principles and conduct:

XRX, Inc. is the parent company of STITCHES Events. Diversity and equality are essential to who we are and respect for everyone is a core part of our identity. XRX, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer with regard to our employees, teachers, and other staff. As such, we consider discrimination of any kind, whether it is based on personal attributes such as gender, age, race, ethnicity, color, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, family status, disability, medical or genetic condition unacceptable and therefore not tolerated.

We strongly believe that it is our responsibility to promote and defend diversity at our shows. We have a zero-tolerance policy toward discrimination. Among, but not limited to, the discriminatory conduct that we find unacceptable are bullying, inappropriate physical contact, or any form of physical, verbal or non-verbal harassment or abuse toward anyone for any reason. And as such we reserve the right to take appropriate actions and/or remove from our shows any person that, in our judgment, fails to adhere to our zero-tolerance discrimination policy.

Lost City Knits

Booths 503-604

Denise Bell and Chris Dykes of Lost City Knits turn their respective eyes towards an American gem -- the tallgrass prairie of Chase County, Kansas. Denise interprets native grasses, buffalo, and butterflies in her original patterns, while Chris photographs the stunning landscape and interviews the people who live there and have deep connections to their land.

It's a knitting book like none other.

HAND DYED FABRICS

100% cotton dyed to look like suede

Our unique technique creates tonal variations, soft texture, and deep, rich colors not found in commercial fabrics. Our beautiful gradations are loved by quilters and seamstresses all over the world. Once you feel the quality, you won't want to sew with anything else.

Solid color doesn't have to be flat.
